

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS TRAINING - Representative

- International Law Institute, Washington, D.C.

Intellectual Property and Transfer of Technology, October 1997

Trained policymakers, legal and financial advisors, and officers of intellectual property and transfer of technology institutions in connection with two week intellectual property course

- World Learning/Technical Training for Societies in Transition (TRANSIT), Washington, D.C.

Bulgarian Intellectual Property Rights Group, November 1997; November 1998

Program Co-director, course designer, and speaker for two week program covering copyright enforcement and compliance with bilateral treaties and international conventions concerning intellectual property, including TRIPS and other international treaties concerning intellectual property

- SIPRE Project, Washington, D.C.

Egyptian Trademark Examination Course, July 13 – August 7, 1998

Designed, prepared materials for, and trained Egyptian trademark examiners at two week course covering trademark protection as well as TRIPS

- International Law Institute, Washington, D.C.

Intellectual Property Course, August, 1998; June, 2000

Course director; designed, prepared materials for and trained policymakers, legal and financial advisors, and officers of intellectual property and transfer of technology institutions in connection with two week intellectual property course that included TRIPS and other international treaties concerning intellectual property

- Global Biodiversity Institute

GBDI Southern African Biodiversity, Biotechnology and Law Training Course, August 2000, June 2001; July 2001- Gaborone, Botswana; Cotonou, Benin; Dar es Salam, Tanzania

One-day training presentations covering information technology/intellectual property including trade secret and copyright protection, appellations of origin and TRIPS in reference to the conservation of biodiversity and improved sustainable economic development in rural communities of the developing world.

- TIPRE Project, Washington, D.C.

Egyptian Trademark Examination Course, August 19, – August 30, 2002

Presentation of two week training course for Egyptian trademark examiners covering TRIPS compliance and rights enforcement, including preparation of training materials.

- World Trade Organization Accession Project, Podgorica, Montenegro/Belgrade, Serbia, June 2004

Two one-day presentations on the subject of intellectual property rights acquisition and protection

- USAID DOHA Project for WTO Accession and Participation – Ethiopia – Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, July 19 – July 31, 2006

Seven-day training program for Ethiopian Intellectual Property Office trademark examiners

- Indonesia Trade Assistance Project

Workshop on the World Trade Organization (WTO) and the Multilateral Trading System (MTS) – Jakarta, Indonesia September 11 – 15, 2006

Two one-day presentations to Indonesian Ministry of Trade officials, University Indonesia Faculty of Law professors, and attorneys regarding intellectual property rights laws under the Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS) in connection with World Intellectual Property Organization member obligations.

For more information contact:

David A. Weinstein
695 South Colorado Boulevard, Suite 360
Denver, Colorado 80246

303-863-8818

© 2011 David A. Weinstein. All rights reserved.